

Eligible Majors or Minors: Students must have a major or minor from the list below as well as substantial background coursework in the proposed field of study to meet the program requirements. If the applicant does not qualify based on the major or minor but is seeking an emphasis in an area below, has sufficient background and can justify this academically, the applicant should make an appointment to speak with the France Adviser.

- Business Administration*
- Business Economics*
- Business Management Economics*
- City & Regional Planning
- Development Studies
- Economics
- Economics & Accounting
- Economics & Mathematics
- Economics/International Area Studies
- Environmental Economics & Policy
- Environmental Studies: Social Science Concentration
- European Studies
- Global Studies
- Global Cultures
- Global Economics
- History
- History of Public Policy
- International Development Studies
- International Relations
- International Studies
- Law & Society
- Legal Studies
- Management Science
- Peace and Conflict Studies
- Political Economy
- Political Science
- Politics
- Public Policy
- Sociology
- Urban Studies and Planning

*Sciences Po Paris no longer offers Business courses. Students majoring in Business must have a strong background in Economics

Sciences Po only offers Modern History courses. This program is not appropriate for History students whose academic focus is pre-20th Century French or European History.

Based on individual campus curriculum and decided on a case-by-case basis