Attendance Guidance and Recommendations for Required One-on-one Interactions with Faculty and Staff Virtually:

In order to protect the privacy of the UC Berkeley community; parents, friends, or family members are not allowed to participate in online class meetings. Enrolled students should be the only participants attending sessions unless an exception has been made through the academic departments and/or instructors to accommodate a student's disability.

But in situations requiring one-on-one interaction with faculty or staff members during the program (ex. Attending faculty office hours, advising ...), students are encouraged to do the following:

- Attend the meeting with the knowledge of their parents or legal guardians.
- If possible, attend the meeting from an open space in your home and not in a closed room, (ex. living room is an ideal option).
- Request that another adult attend the meeting with them (ex. GSI, parent/legal guardian).
- Always copy their parent/legal guardian, GSI, or adviser as appropriate in all their email correspondence during the program.

By signing below I agree that the University reserves the right in its sole discretion to dismiss me from the program at any time should my actions or general behavior disrupt, interfere with, or otherwise impede the operation of the program or the rights or welfare of any person. Similarly, if my conduct violates any policy or procedure of the University, I agree and understand that I may be withdrawn from the Program as determined by the University in its sole discretion. If payment was remitted for the program prior to any such dismissal, I will not receive any refund (pro-rated or otherwise) for any portion of the program that I am unable to complete.

I understand that the University reserves the right in its sole discretion to cancel the program or any component thereof at any time.
