UCEAP Advising Notes

Objective

This document is an advising tool written by a Berkeley Study Abroad (BSA) Adviser to review program specific details that may impact a student's decision to apply for a UCEAP program. The document is not a summary of eligibility requirements, academic, housing, application and other logistical details freely available to students on the UCEAP and BSA website. If any concerns you have are not addressed on the UCEAP website or the Advising Notes document, please contact the BSA Adviser for this program.

COVID-19 Information

The COVID-19 pandemic continues to present challenges related to health concerns and international travel. UCEAP has been updating their website’s Coronavirus Notice with up-to-date information. Please check this website for the most up to date information about which programs are running in the 2022-23 academic year.

Academics & Eligibility

The University of Iceland program is open to Environmental Studies, Geology / Earth Sciences, Anthropology, and Sociology majors. At least 60 percent of your coursework at University of Iceland is required to be related to your major and in the faculty (department) that most aligns with your major at the University of Iceland.

University of Iceland is a new program for UCEAP and more details will be coming soon!
